“ Sounds of the Shtetle”

Saturday. April 4, 2009

7:00pm

JUC's Music Ministry Group presents a concert for all ages. Free-will donations accepted.

Klezmer music includes the hot sweet songs and dances of Jewish theatre and celebrations. Think Dixieland style jazz ensemble playing with Eastern European flavor, and you have the idea. Our own Meg York, on clarinets, flute and saxophone, will be joined by the wonderful and dynamic Klez Dispensers for a two- part event.

The first half will be a sit down concert ,and the second half will have dancing.

The KD is headed up by fantastic multi- instrumentalist Ben Cohen, mandolin, accordion, piano, bass, banjo, you name it, he plays it. Al Knipe, of Cindy and the Crawdads, a percussionist for forty-seven years with three world tours under his belt, and Eric Levine, one of Colorado's best folk violinists will also join us.

Light refreshments will be served.

JUC Live Presents:

Rene Marie and her Band- April 19, 2009- 4pm

Rene Marie is yet another great Jazz artist now living in the Denver Area, and is arguably one of the World's best female Jazz vocalists.

Tickets are $20

Recorder Concert May 3rd
4pm

A unique musical experience can be heard on May 3rd, in the JUC sanctuary at 4 p.m. The Colorado Recorder Orchestra has been together for 5 years, playing spring and fall concerts up and down the front range. The 25 musicians, led by Rose Marie Terada, come from Ft. Collins and points south, all the way to Colorado Springs. Recorders played range in size from the tiny sopranino, down to the 5 ft. tall contra bass, plus harpsichord and viola de gamba. The concert will feature music from Mozart, Boyce, and Sousa, among others. Refreshments served, and it's free!
