

Visitor's Letter 2

April 30, 2003

Dear (Visitor's Name)

We were very pleased to have you as our guest at Jefferson Unitarian Church recently and hope to see you again in the near future. The enclosed brochure provides an introduction to our church as well as a description of our faith and religious experience. We hope you will find it meaningful.

You have been added to our mailing list as you requested. Enclosed is the first issue of your complimentary subscription to our bi-weekly newsletter (please note that The Crier is mailed via second class postage every other Tuesday.) If you prefer, recent issues of The Crier can be viewed in a PDF format on the JUC website: jeffersonunitarian.org utilizing Adobe Acrobat Reader (a free download from the internet.) Just notify the office to remove you from our mailing list if this works better for you.

The newsletter contains information about the many activities here at JUC--possibly you will spot some in which you would like to participate. You are welcome at any and all events. In approximately three months you will be given the opportunity to decide whether or not you wish to continue to receive The Crier (the annual subscription fee for non-members is $30.)

Designated members of JUC are available at the Information Table in the north commons room following the Sunday service to greet newcomers and answer questions about the church and its activities. In addition, we offer regularly scheduled "Getting to Know UU" information forums on Sunday mornings and a quarterly, in-depth orientation program called "Path to Membership" intended to familiarize newcomers with our philosophy and ministry. Look for details to be announced via The Crier or in the Sunday bulletin. You are especially encouraged to attend any of these sessions which fit your schedule.

In the meantime, if you have any questions or comments, please feel free to call me at 303-467-3342.

Sincerely,

Please Be Our Guest! Newcomers No Charge!
